Discount drug cards: Savings for seniors

Information from

Representative

Linda
Lawson

Millions of American seniors have incomes too high to qualify for Medicaid, yet struggle to pay for essential medications that Medicare does not fund.

Several pharmaceutical companies have developed discount cards for qualifying seniors. Details about some of the cards are given at the right. Please contact the companies listed for more information.

Worried about paying for your Prescriptions?

A few words about the HoosierRx Program from Representative Linda Lawson

You may be eligible for HoosierRx if you:

1. Are at least 65 years old
2. Are not covered under prescription drug insurance or Medicaid
3. Have a monthly net income of $1,011 or less if you are single, or a monthly net income of $1,364 if you are married

Your net income is the income you receive after taxes, including income from wages, Social Security, pensions, interest from bank accounts, annuities, IRAs, CDs, and dividends.

HoosierRx, the state's prescription drug plan, provides benefits to low-income seniors who have no health insurance coverage for their prescription drug expenses. So far more than 14,500 Hoosiers have been helped, but funding is available to assist many more.

HoosierRx provides a discount card saving the user up to 50 percent off the expenses incurred for prescription drugs. Depending on your income, you could receive up to $1,000 in refunds per year. If you think you might be eligible, fill out a HoosierRx application today.

How to apply

Fill out an application to see if you are eligible for the HoosierRx program.

Indiana seniors may receive an application at their local pharmacy, download one from the HoosierRx website at www.in.gov/HoosierRx or call the program's toll-free number at
